

DR RAJENDRA GODE NURSING INSTITUTE, SAGWAN BULDANA

REPORT ON GANPATI CELEBRATION

TITLE: CELEBRATION OF GANESH CHATURHI-2025

DATE: 27 OF August

VENUE: MULTIPURPOSE HALL

ORGANIZED BY: VIIth SEM

Ganesh Chaturthi also known as vinayak chaturthi is on the most widely celebrated hindu festival in india, dedicated to lord Ganesha- the remover of obstacle and the and the god wisdom and prosperity in 2025 in 2025, the festival began on august 27 and concluded with Anant Chaturdashi on 7 September.

Festival highlights-(pran prasthapana)

Idol Installation (Pran Pratishtha):

The festival commenced with the installation of beautifully crafted idols of Lord Ganesha in college, Dated on 26 th at noon. The idols were decorated with vibrant flowers, lights, and traditional ornaments.

Daily Rituals and Aartis:

Devotees performed daily pujas and sang aartis such as Sukhkarta Dukhharta and Jai Ganesh Deva. Offerings of modaks, laddus, and durva grass were made with great devotion. Arti has done by the principal sir and vaibhavi mam.

Cultural Programs:

Various cultural events like dance performances, music competitions, rangoli-making, and eco-awareness campaigns were organized throughout the festival. Many communities promoted eco-friendly Ganeshas made of clay.

Community Participation:

The festival witnessed enthusiastic participation from all age groups. Volunteers managed crowd control, cleanliness drives, and eco-friendly immersion practices.

Ganpati Visarjan:

On Anant Chaturdashi, the idols were taken for immersion (Visarjan) with processions full of energy, music, and chants of “Ganpati Bappa Morya, Pudhchya Varshi Lavkar Ya!”. Eco-friendly methods like artificial ponds and water tanks were widely used to minimize environmental impact.

Significance: The Ganpati festival is not just a religious event but also a celebration of community bonding, art, and environmental awareness. It brings people together and spreads the message of unity, devotion, and cultural heritage.

Conclusion:

The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration of 2025 was a grand success. With increasing awareness about sustainability, many groups opted for eco-friendly practices, showing a positive shift toward responsible celebration. The festival ended with hope and devotion, with everyone eagerly waiting for Bappa's return next year.

