

WORLD HEALTH DAY CELEBRATION REPORT
THEME: HEALTHY BEGINNING, HOPEFUL FUTURE

Date: 7th April 2025

Time: 3:30 PM - 4:45 PM

Venue: Dr. Rajendra Gode Nursing Institute, Buldana

Organizers: 6th Semester BSc Nursing

Anchor: Ms. Renuka Dukare and Ms. Punam Jadhao

Vote of Thanks: Ms. Vaishnavi Sapkal

On April 7th, 2025, the Dr. Rajendra Gode Nursing Institute in Buldana hosted a celebration in honor of World Health Day. The event was centered around the theme "Healthy Beginning, Hopeful Future," and was organized by the 6th Semester BSc Nursing students. The event took place from 3:30 PM to 4:45 PM and was attended by several faculty members, students, and dignitaries.

Key Personalities and Dignitaries

President of the Event: Mr. Arun Lokhande (Principal, Dr. Rajendra Gode Nursing Institute)

On the dse :

Ms. Kumud Madam (3rd Year GNM Class Coordinator)

Ms. Tejaswini Madam (Class Coordinator, 6th Semester BSc Nursing)

Ms. Durga Madam (Class Coordinator, 4th Semester BSc Nursing)

1. Opening Ceremony:

The event commenced with a traditional Pujan and a candle lighting ceremony in front of a portrait of Florence Nightingale, symbolizing respect and gratitude to the nursing profession.

2. Felicitations: The event featured several felicitation sessions:

Mr. Ritesh Sir felicitated to Mr. Arun Lokhande (Principal).

Ms. Nikita Madam felicitated to Ms. Tejaswini Madam (6th Semester BSc Nursing Class Coordinator).

Ms. Priyanka Madam felicitated to Ms. Durga Madam (4th Semester BSc Nursing Class Coordinator).

Ms. Pragati Madam felicitated to Ms. Kumud Madam (3rd Year GNM Class Coordinator).

3. Speeches:

Krutika (1st Year GNM) delivered a speech on Maternal and Newborn Health and its critical role in building a healthy society.

Shailesh Gawai (6th Semester BSc Nursing) addressed the Theme of World Health Day, emphasizing the importance of a healthy start for a brighter future.

Bhavana Gomase (4th Semester BSc Nursing) spoke about Environmental Health and Sustainability and their influence on maternal and newborn care.

Juhi Yele (4th Semester BSc Nursing) presented her thoughts on Managing Digital Wellbeing in the Age of Technology, which is a crucial aspect of modern healthcare.

Finally, Mr. Arun Lokhande (Principal) concluded the speeches with an informative talk on the significance of World Health Day and its global impact.

4. Results of Speech Competition:

The speech competition results were announced:

1st Place: Ms. Juhi Yele

2nd Place: Ms. Bhavana Gomase

Both winners received their prizes from the Principal, Mr. Arun Lokhande.

5. Poster Presentations:

Two students received recognition for their excellent poster presentations:

Utkarsha Atram (4th Semester BSc Nursing)

Ankita Kharat (5th Semester BSc Nursing)

Both winners were awarded their prizes by the Principal.

6. Skit Performances:

Achal and Group (4th Semester BSc Nursing) performed a skit focusing on Maternal and Newborn Health, spreading awareness about the importance of care during pregnancy and childbirth.

Krutika and Group (4th Semester BSc Nursing) performed a Nukkad Natak (street play) on Mental Health Awareness, educating the audience on the significance of mental health in daily life and its impact on overall well-being.

7. Vote of Thanks:

The event concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks delivered by Ms. Vaishnavi Sapkal, who expressed gratitude to all the participants, dignitaries, faculty, and students for making the event a success.

